

← Unmet Need

Impact of Unmet Needs

QoL in adults

QoL in children and adolescents

Treatment Adherence

QoL in children and adolescents

- Nearly 70% of caregivers report their child experienced ≥ 1 treatment-related adverse event, with most noting negative impacts on well-being on both parties ^{* 2}

Children experiencing treatment-related adverse events have

Lower health-related quality of life

More ADHD-related healthcare visits

Parents/caregivers of children experiencing adverse events have:

Greater daily activity impairment

Greater overall work impairment

*In a survey of parents/caregivers of children taking ADHD medication (n=401).
ADHD, attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder

References:

1. Ref